(If petitioner is attacking a judgment which imposed a sentence to be served in the future, petitioner must fill in the name of the state where the judgment was entered. If petitioner has a sentence to be served in the future under a federal judgment which he wishes to attack, he should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, in the federal court which entered the judgment.)

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS BY A PERSON IN STATE CUSTODY

INSTRUCTIONS-READ CAREFULLY

- 1. You must include all potential claims and supporting facts for which you might desire to seek review because a second or successive habeas corpus petition cannot be filed except under very specific and rare circumstances requiring certification by the Third Circuit Court of Appeals as set forth in instruction # 13.
- 2. Your habeas corpus petition must be filed within the 1-year statute of limitations time limit set forth in 28 U.S.C. §2244(d)(1). (There are limited circumstances in which the petition may be amended, within the one-year time period, to add additional claims or facts, see Federal Rules of
- 1. Footnote:

Civil Procedure 15; or amended after the one-year period expires, in order to clarify or amplify claims which were timely presented, see United States v. Thomas, 221 F. 3d 430 (3d Cir. 2000.)

- 3. Any false statement of a material fact in your petition, in a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, or in any other motion you file in this case may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury.
- 4. This petition must be typewritten, printed, or legibly handwritten and signed by you as the petitioner or by your representative on Page 11. You should answer all questions concisely in the proper space of the petition. If you need more room to answer any question, you may write on the reverse blank sides of the petition.
- 5. You may not attach additional pages to the petition. You do not have to list or cite the cases or law that you are relying on. If you do want to cite the cases and law you are relying on and make legal arguments, you should do so in a separate concise brief or memorandum which should be filed along with the petition.
- 6. When you file your petition, you must include a filing fee of $5.00. If you cannot pay the full filing fee, you must request permission to proceed in forma pauperis as explained in instruction #8.
 - 7. Your petition will be filed if you have followed these instructions and it is in proper order.
- 8. To request permission to proceed in forma pauperis without paying the full filing fee, you must completely fill out pages 12 through 18 of the petition. You should answer all questions and sign where indicated on Pages 12 and 18. You should see to it that an authorized prison official completes the certification on Page 19. You must prove that you cannot pay the full filing fee and other costs because of poverty and a discharge in bankruptcy will not excuse you from this requirement. The Court will let you know if you may proceed in forma pauperis.
- 9. Only final judgments entered by one state court may be challenged in a single petition. If you seek to challenge judgments entered by different courts either in the same state or in different states, you must file separate petitions as to each court.
- 10. As required by 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(1), you must have exhausted all claims that you are making in your petition. This means that every claim must have been presented to each level of the state courts. If you file a petition that contains claims that are not exhausted, the federal court will dismiss your petition. 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(2) provides that if it is perfectly clear that no colorable claims are presented, the federal court can also deny your petition on the ments.
- 11. As required by 28 U.S.C. § 2254(e)(1), a federal court, when considering your habeas corpus petition, must deem as correct a determination of fact made by a state court unless you rebut the presumption of correctness by clear and convincing evidence. Under 28 U.S.C. § 2254(e)(2), if you have failed to develop the factual basis of a claim in state court proceedings, a federal court cannot hold an evidentiary hearing on that claim unless you show that:

- (i) the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the U.S. Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable,
- (ii) a factual predicate that could not have been previously discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

You must also show that the facts underlying the claim would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that but for constitutional error, no reasonable fact finder would have found you guilty of the offense in question.

- 12. As required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(1), a federal court must dismiss any claim in a second. or successive habeas corpus petition that was presented in a prior habeas corpus petition.
- 13. As required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(2), a federal court must dismiss any claim in a second or successive habeas corpus petition that was not presented in a prior habeas corpus petition unless you show:
 - (A) the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the U.S. Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable;
 - (B)(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence, and (ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable fact finder would have found you guilty of the offense in question.

Before such a second or successive petition may be filed in the district court, however, the petitioner must move the court of appeals for an Order authorizing the district court to consider the petition. Petitioner's motion for such an Order must be determined by a three judge panel of the court of appeals, which must grant or deny the motion within 30 days. The court of appeals may grant the motion only if it determines that the petition makes a prima facie showing that it satisfies either (A) or (B) above.

- 14. 28 U.S.C. § 2254(i) provides that ineffectiveness of counsel during post-conviction, habeas corpus and P.C.R.A. proceedings in state or federal court may not be grounds for relief in your petition.
- 15. When the petition is fully completed, the original and four copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court, Room 2609, 601 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106. You must return all pages, including these instructions.

12. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Give specific facts supporting each ground.

CAUTION: In order to proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state court remedies, you should set them forth in this petition if you wish to seek federal relief. If you fail to set forth all such grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting them at a later date.

For information, the following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement preceded by a letter constitutes a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds which you may have other than those listed if you have exhausted all your state court remedies with respect to them. However, you should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your allegations that you are being held in custody unlawfully.

Do not check any of these listed grounds. If you select one or more of these grounds for relief, you must allege facts. The petition will be returned to you if you merely check (a) through (j) or any one of these grounds.

- (a) Conviction obtained by plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- (b) Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.
- (c) Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure, (where the state has not provided a full and fair hearing on the merits of the Fourth Amendment claim).
- (d) Conviction obtained by use of evidence obtained pursuant to an unlawful arrest, (where the state has not provided a full and fair hearing on the merits of the Fourth Amendment claim).
- (e) Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- (f) Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant.
- (g) Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- (h) Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- (i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- (j) Denial of right of appeal.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. & 2254

TO: THE HONORABLE JUDGES/JUDGES OF THE ABOVE-SAID COURT:

The Petitioner, Blane Neely, Pro-se, that Writ of Habeas Corpus be granted for the reasons that follows:

- Petitioner is an inmate currently housed at the State Correctional Institution, Graterford, in Graterford, Pennsylvania.
- 2. The State of Delaware has sought to remove Petitioner pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) in the matter of State of Delaware V. James Jones, Indictment No. 9908003661, which involves an incident that occurred on or about August 4, 1999. (See enclosed record attached hereto.)
- 3. The Docket Entries of The Superior Court of Delaware records reflect that subsequent to release on bond, the Petitioner was incarcerated at Graterford Prison which the State of Delaware became aware of on March 8, 2000. See: Exhibit "A" attached, Docket Entry #18.
- 4. As a result of being notified that Petitioner was now incarcerated in Pennsylvania at SCI-Graterford, the State of Delaware on June 2, 2000 filed a "Form 5" Request for Temporary Custody. See: Exhibit "A", attached, Docket Entry #24.

- 5. The State of Delaware after making the Form 5 written Request For Temporary custody on June 2, 2000 triggering obligations and protections under IAD and pursuant to Article IVand V of that act, the State of Delaware did not proceed; fail to accept temporary custody and to try Petitioner in 120 days.
- 6. The State of Delaware made a second Form 5 Request For Temporary Custody on February 8, 2005 which was signed by a judge in Delaware but that said request was not mailed to the District Attorney's Office in Pennsylvania until October 26, 2005, over eight months later; again the State of Delaware did not proceed; failed to accept Temporary Custody and to try Petitioner in 120 days after triggering State of Delaware's obligations and Petitioners protections under IAD. See: Exhibit "B", State of Delaware "Second Form 5" Request for Temporary Custody.
- Agreement on Detainers Act, Article IV and V(c), where State of Delaware failed to commence extradition proceedings and failed to accept temporary custody after filing "Form 5" initiating transfer...the 120 day period of Article IV, is triggered...Upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability and was sufficient to the trigger the State of Delaware's obligation pursuant to Article IV of the IAD to bring Appellant to trial in a 120 days. See: Commonwealth v. Davis, 567 Pa. 135, 138-39, 786 A.2d 173, 175 (2001); Article IV of the IAD provides the procedure by which the prosecutor in the requesting State initiates the transfer:

- (a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V(a) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated.
- 8. Pursuant to INTERSTATE Agreement on Detainer Act. Article V(c), "If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate Court of jurisdiction where the indictment, information, or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect."
- 9. The State of Delaware again further violated the IAD by presenting the February 8th 2005 "second" Form 5 Request for Temporary Custody, as requisition papers at Petitioner's Extradition Hearings on June 5th 2006 before Judge Thomas Del

Ricci and June 13th before Judge William R. Carpenter, in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Courtroom 6, which made the requisition untimely and invalid, Requisition Papers was not in the proper order. See: Exhibit "B" attached, State of Delaware Second Requisition Papers which were presented as Third Requisition.

10. See: Commonwealth v. Mayle, 788 A.2d 677 (Pa. Super. 2001), the court cited the following language from Commonwealth v. Thornhill, 441 Pa. Super. 382, 601 A.2d 842, 846 (Pa. Super. 1992) to set forth the policies under the act:

"The policy of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers is to encourage the expeditions and orderly disposition of charges and its purpose is to promote and foster prisoner treatment and rehabilitation programs by eliminating uncertainties which accompany the filing of detainer. Commonwealth v. Fisher 451 Pa. 102, 106, 301 A.2d 605, 607 (1973...Because the legislation is remedial in character, it is to be liberally construed in favor of the prisoner so as to effectuate its purpose. Commonwealth v. Merlo, supra at 522, 364 A.2d at 394."

Mayle, 780 A.2d at 682.

11. To permit the State of Delaware to extradite Petitioner over six years after they filed the request to have him transferred will violate the remedial purpose under the IAD act, and also; the due process and equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

This Honorable Court should not reward the utter lack of due diligence by the State of Delaware by permitting them to remove Petitioner after this passage of time and procedural default, its failure to try him within a 120 days of the requests has denied the State of Delaware the right to try Petitioner.

Testimony before the Honorable William E. Carpenter on June 13, 2006 reflected that the State of Delaware did not proceed on its first Form 5 request for Temporary Custody in the year 2000 under the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act but made a second request on February 8, 2005 and the request made before Judge Carpenter was the third requisition.

Nonetheless, the court erroneously signed on order transferring the Petitioner to Delaware on June 15, 2006. See: Exhibit "C", Order of Judge William E. Carpenter, attached.

The Petitioner filed a Notice of Appeal to the Superior Court on July 7, 2006, along with a "Petition for Stay From Extradition and for a Writ of Habeas Corpus". Petitioner Brief was returned on November 20Th. 2006. See: Exhibit "D", Order for the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

WHEREFORE, for all the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that this Honorable $_{\Lambda}$ grant this petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus and dismiss Criminal Complaint and charges with prejudice; in the interest of judicial efficiency.

Respectfully submitted,

Blane Neely, GE-0655

ORDER

AND NOW, this ______ day of June, 2006, the Court finds that the State of Delaware has fulfilled the requirements of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (IADA), as codified by both Pennsylvania at PA.C.S. §9101 et seq., and the State of Delaware at 11 Del. C., Chap. 25, §2540 et seq. The Court is satisfied that the accused named in the Request for Temporary Custody, Form 5, is the defendant/prisoner being held at the State Correctional institution, Graterford.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DIRECTED that, pursuant to the provision of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act, the State of Delaware be given temporary custody of Blane Neeley a/k/a James Jones, to answer the criminal charges in that Jurisdiction.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution, Graterford shall proceed with arrangements for the transfer and temporary custody of the defendant to the demanding State of Delaware, County of New Castle, pursuant to the provisions of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act.

ORDER IN QUESTION

The order which is subject of this appeal is the Final Order Dismissing Petition For A STAY From EXTRADITION Entered On June 15.2006 By The Honorable William R. Carpenter Judge Of The Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County At No. 46-MD-0000575-2006. See: Exhibit attached to Brief.

STATEMENT OF QUESTION INVOLVED

- I. Whether the Delaware State Officials violated the Terms Of the Interstate Agreement On Detainers Act, Article IV and V(C), by Twice Filing form V" Written Request for Temporary Custody and failing to Proceed or Accept Temporary Custody.
- II. Whether the Delaware State Officials Third Requisition Papers in the Proper Order to allow Appellants transfer to the State of Delaware by Pennsylvania Ath Authorities.

SCOPE AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

When reviewing a lower court's decision, the standard of review is whether the determination was supported by the record and is free of legal error.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The State of Delaware sought to remove Appellant pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act in the matter of the State of Delaware v. James Jones Del. Super. Ct., I. D.# 9908003361 which involves an incident that occurred on or about August 4, 1999 in the City of Wilmington New Castle County Delaware.

Subsequent to Appellant being release on bond for the said incident, Appellant was arrested for, Appellant was incarcerated at Graterford's State Correctional Institution in Graterford Pennslyvania.

As a result of the State of Delaware being notified that Appellant was in carcerated in Pennsyvania at SCI Graterford, the State of Delaware filed its "First" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody on June 2,2000. (See: Exhibit"A" Attach to Brief, Superior Court of State of Delaware, Docket Entries #18 and 24.)

Testimony before the Honorable William E. Carpenter on June 13,2006 at the Cuyler v. Adams Extradition Hearing in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery, reflected that the State of Delaware did not proceed nor accept temporary custody on its "First" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody under the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act but made a "Second" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody on February 8, 2005 which was signed by a Judge and Deputy Attorney General in Delaware, However, that "Second Request" was not mailed to the District Attorney Office in Pennsylvania untill October 26,2005 over eight months later, Nonetheless the Court signed an Order transferring the Appellant to Delaware on June 15, 2006. (See: Exhibit's, Second Request for Temporary Custody: Exhibit "C" Transcripts of Extradition Hearing of June 13. 2006 Pages 1-11 and also; Exhibit "D" Transfer Order attached to this Brief)

Furthermore, the Third Requisition made by the state of Delaware was Defective, the Form V Written Request for Custody presented in 2006 was not only invalid because it was signed in February 8, 2005 but the Prosecutor Peter N. Letang had resigned as Chief Prosecutor for the State of Delaware and could not have lawfully made the Agreement to take Temporary Custody under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act.

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

The Appellant who is presently housed at the Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in the City of Wilmington New Castle County Delaware was unlawfully removed by Delaware State Authorities from Graterford State Correctional Institution at Graterford Pennsylvania via a Cuyler v. Adams Extradition Hearing pursuant to Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act.

The State of Delaware presented defective Requisition Papers at the Extradition's Hearing that were not in the Proper Order on their face and the State of Delaware was Knowingly in violation of the Terms of the Inter-State Agreement on Detainers Act Article IV and VE).

Futhermore, the State of Delaware violated State and Federal Laws and also; the Jurisdition of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania by Transferring Appellant to another Jurisdiction across State Lines while instant Appeal of Transfer Order of lower Court was still Pending before the Superior Court of Pennsylvania to prevent Disclosure of unlawful Extradition.

ARGUMENT

THE DELAWARE STATE OFFICIALS VIOLATED THE TERMS OF THE INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS ACT ARTICLE IV AND VC) BY TWICE FILING FORM V WRITTEN REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY CUSTODY AND FAILING TO PROCEED OR ACCEPT TEMPORARY CUSTODY

The Docket Entries from the State of Delaware Superior Court Criminal Docket relect that subsequent to release on bond the Appellant was located incarcerated at Graterford Prison on March 8 2000. See: Exhibit "A", attached, Docket Entry # 18.

As a result of being notified that Appellant was now incar-cerated at SCI-Graterford the State of Delaware filed its first "Formy" Written Request for Temporary Custody on June 2, 2000. See: Exhibit "A", attached Docket Entry # 24.

After failing to proceed on "first" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody, the State of Delaware filed a "Second" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody on February 8,2005 which was signed by a Judge And Deputy Attorney General, However, that "Second" Request was not mailed to the District Attorneys Office in Pennsylvania tentil October 26,00 er eight months later.

Approximately Sixteen months after the State of Delaware filed its "Second" form V Written Request for Temporary Custody which Delaware again failed to proceed on; to commence extradition proceedings; accept temporary Custody, to transport and Try Appellant, presented the defective "Second" Form V Written Request at the Appellants Cuylerv. Adams Extradition Hearing on June 13, 2006 as Delaware's"Third" Requisition Papers, not only was Requisition Paper not in the Proper Order untimeliness because of their Untimeliness but that the Deputy Attorney General Peter N. Letang who signed the February 8,2005 to -Form V Written Request for Validation had resigned when it was presented to Pennsylvania Courton June 13 2006.

The State of Delaware has unequivocally violated the Interstate Agreement on Detainers" Terms" Artical Ivand V(c), where State of Delaware failed to Twice "commence extradition" proceedings and failed to accept temporary custody after filing "Form V" initiating transfer... the 120 day period of Article IV is triggered... Upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability. See: Commonwealth v. Davis 567 Pa. 135 138-39, 786 A. 2d 173 175 (2001), The Court concluded that "Article IV of the IAD provides the procedure by which the prosecutor in the requesting State initiates the transfer:

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V(a) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of state in which the prisoner is incarcerated.

Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act, Article VC) "If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof the appropriate Court of jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect."

In Commonwealth v. Mayle, 788 A.2d 677(Pa. Super. 2001), the court cited the following language from Commonwealth v. Thornhill 441 Pa. Super 382, 601 A.2d 842, 846 (Pa. Super. 1992) to set forth the policies under the act:

"The policies of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers is to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of charges and its purpose is to promote and foster prisoner treatment and rehabilitation programs by eliminating uncertainties which accompany the filing of detainer. Commonwealth v. Fisher, 451 Pa. 102 106 301 A. 2d605 607(1973)..... Because the legislation is remedial in character, it is to be liberally construed in favor of the prisoner soas to effect uate its purpose. Commonwealth v. Merlo supra at 522 364 A.2d at 394."

Mayle, 780 A.2d at 682.

The State of Delaware waited over Six years after filing their First request to have Appellant extradited on June 2,2000 before unlawfully transporting Appellant to Delaware on August 15,2006, among numerous other violations of the terms under the Interstate on Detainer Agreement on Detainer Act. Delaware violated the remedial purpose under the Act.

THE DELAWARE STATE OF FICIALS THIRD REQUISITION PAPERS WAS NOT IN THE PROPER ORDER TO ALLOW APPELLANTS TRANSFER TO THE STATE OF DELAWARE BY PENNSYLVANIA AUTHORITIES

Pursuant to Cuyler v. Adams 101 S.Ct. 703, 709, at F.N. 11 (1981), citing Michigan v. Doran, Supra, at 289 99 S.Ct., at 535:

"The person being extradited has no right to Challenge the facts surrounding the underlying crime or the lodging of the Custody request at the first hearing. Even at the later habeas corpus hearing, if any, he is permitted to question only:

(a) whether the extradition documents on their face are in order; (b) whether he has been charged with a crime in the demanding State; (c) whether he is the person named in the request for extradition; and (d) whether he is a fugitive."

At Appellant's Extradition Hearings on June 5, 2006 before Judge Thomas Del Ricci and June 13, 2006 before Judge William R. Carpenter, in the Court of Lommon Pleas of Montgomery County Courtroom 6, Delaware presented Requisition Papers that was not in the Proper Order on their face, they were untimely and invalid due to the fact Delaware presented their February 8,2005 "Second" Form V Written Request for Temporary Custody Which had been violated for failure to execute requisition timely under Detainer Act, as Delaware's "Third" Requisition Papers.

Furthermore, the Requisition made by the State of Delaware to the Pennsylvania Authorities in June 2006 was invalid bethe Cause the Interstate Compact Agreement to Try and return Appellant in a 120 days was signed by Peter N. Letang who had resigned as Deputy Attorney General.

The Honor Court has Jurisdiction in light of the Interstate Compact Agreement to mandate the State of Delaware to Comply with the Terms "of the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act pursuant to Article IV and VC), Dismissing all Charges and return Appellant to Pennsylvania's Department of Corrections.

CONCLUSION

Because of The State Of Delaware violations of the Terms of the Interstate Agreement on Detainer's and the Jurisdiction of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania over the instant matter the Appellant ask this Honorable Court, in the interest of Due Process and Equal Protection of the Law Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, mandate that the State of Delaware return Appellant to the Pennsyvania Department of Corrections for the sake of Comity and the Interstate Compact between the State of Delaware and Pennsylvania, Dismissing all Charges,

6	MS. RICCA: Good morning, Your
7	Honor. This is the case of Commonwealth versus Blane
8	Neely, also known as James Jones, docket number
9	MD-575-06.
10	This is a hearing under Cuyler
11	versus Adams regarding the Interstate Agreement on
12	Detainers. The defendant is currently a prisoner at
1.3	our State Correctional Institute at Graterford. He is
14	represented by Mr. Jerome Brown of Philadelphia. He
1.5	has filed certain motions, Your Honor, contesting the
16	transfer, which is the reason for this hearing.
17	The last time we were in court
18	Mr. Brown did stipulate to the fingerprint report that
19	I had from Detective Bruce Saville.
20	MR. BROWN: That is correct,
21	Your Honor.
22	THE COURT: So identity isn't
23	the issue, right?
24	MR. BROWN: Identity is not the
25	issue in this case.

EXHIBIT "C"

1	Commonwealth v. Blane Neely
2	THE COURT: What is the issue?
3	MR. BROWN: The issue in this
4	case is a couple-fold. Has the Court had an
5	opportunity to read the Motion for Habeas Corpus?
6	THE COURT: It's before me right
7	now.
8.	MR. BROWN: Your Honor, number
9	one, the State of Delaware lodged a detainer against
10	Mr. Neely probably about six years ago when he was
11	housed at SCI Graterford. Thereafter, the State of
12	Delaware has taken no action in this case.
13	I guess our attack is a
14	couple-fold. Number one, the fact that remedial
15	purposes of the Act are that individuals are to be
16	taken, under the Act, quickly, because of the fact
17	that they have certain rehabilitative efforts ongoing
1.8	which Mr. Neely has done. He has actually served one
19	sentence
20	THE COURT: Let me stop you for
21	a minute. You are really saying it's not a timely
22	request from Delaware any longer.
23	MR. BROWN: That's number one.
24	THE COURT: All right. Well
25	what's number two?

EXHIBIT"C"

1 Det. George Mood - Direct 2 MR. BROWN: Number two is, 3 whatever requisition papers that there were that existed six years ago are no longer valid. 5 THE COURT: And is there a 6 number three? MR. Detective Mood, by whom are you employed?

- 1 Det. George Mood Direct
- 2 A. By the Montgomery County District Attorney. I am

- 6 Q. Do your duties include handling documents

- MR. BROWN: Your Honor, may we
- 11 have one moment to look at these.
- THE COURT: All right, we'll
- 13 take a brief recess. Let me know when you're ready.
- 14 (A recess is taken.)
- 15 - -
- MR. BROWN: Your Honor, if I
- 17 might, I would like to add one other ground after
 - 18 speaking with Mr. Neely. It is his position that the
 - 19 Commonwealth -- not the Commonwealth, but the State of
 - 20 Delaware must also, under Cuyler versus Sullivan --
 - 21 excuse me -- Cuyler versus Adams, grant all of the
 - 22 protections under the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act
 - 23 also, and they have not done that, in particular
 - 24 filing a governor's warrant here. That is the
 - 25 additional ground he has asked me to raise.

vs.

Blane Neeley a/k/a James Jones SCI Graterford # GE0655

ORDER

AND NOW, this ______ day of June, 2006, the Court finds that the State of Delaware has fulfilled the requirements of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (IADA), as codified by both Pennsylvania at PA.C.S. §9101 et seq., and the State of Delaware at 11 Del. C., Chap. 25, §2540 et seq. The Court is satisfied that the accused named in the Request for Temporary Custody, Form 5, is the defendant/prisoner being held at the State Correctional institution, Graterford.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DIRECTED that, pursuant to the provision of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act, the State of Delaware be given temporary custody of Blane Neeley a/k/a James Jones, to answer the criminal charges in that Jurisdiction.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution, Graterford shall proceed with arrangements for the transfer and temporary custody of the defendant to the demanding State of Delaware, County of New Castle, pursuant to the provisions of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act.

PETITION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

MICHAELE. KUNZ, Clerk
By PHR Dep. Clerk

TO: THE HONORABLE PETRESE B. TUCKER, JUDGE OF THE ABOVE SAID COURT:

The Petitioner Blane Neely. prose, respectfully request this Honorable Court grant the instant petition for the reasons that follow:

- 1. On January 31, 2007, the Honorable Petrese B. Tucker ordered that this Civil Action be transferred to the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaward where the Petitioner was previous incarcerated.
- and serving a sentence at the State Correctional Institution, at Graterford, Pennsylvania, in the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (Philadelphia); and also; Pennsylvania is an agent for the principle party/actor (Delaware State) whom the instant Civil Action is brought against. See: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Ex Rel. the State of Delaware, vs. Blane Neely a/k/a James Jones, CP-46-MD 0000575-2006 and Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Ex Rel. Blane Neely Vs. David Diguglielmo, et. al., Superior Court of PA Docket No. 1975 EDA 2006.

RECEIVED

FEB 28 2007

Accordantly, this Honorable United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania has jurisdiction and the authority to entertain the instant Habeas Corpus matter pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §§2241 and 2254, which presents a "Federal Question" of "unlawful extradition" in violation of the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act, an interstate compact approved by Congress and is thus a federal law subject to federal rather than state construction. See: Cuyler v. Adams, 101 S.Ct. 703 (1981), at 449 U.S. 438-39.

- 3. The State of Delaware sought to remove Petitioner from Pennsylvania to face criminal charges in the State of Delaware pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) in the matter of State of Delaware V. James Jones, Superior Court, I.D. # 9908003361 which involves an incident that occurred on or about August 4, 1999. See: Exhibit "A". Delaware Superior Court Criminal Docket Sheet, attached.
- 4. The Delaware State Docket Entries reflect that subsequent to Petitioner's release on bond, Petitioner was incarcerated at Graterford Prison. See: Exhibit "A", Docket Entry # 18, dated March 8, 2000, page 3, attached.
- 5. As a result of Delaware State being notified that Petitioner was now incarcerated in Pennsylvania at SCI-Graterford, the State of Delaware filed a "Form 5" Written Request for Temporary Custody under IAD Act. See: Exhibit "A" Docket Entry # 24, dated June 2, 2000 page 3 and also; see Exhibit "C" Testimony of Montgomery County District

Attorney's Office Detective George Mood at Cuyler Hearing, June 13, 2006, page 11, before the Honorable Judge William
R. Carpenter, of the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery
County Pennsylvania, attached.

After failing to proceed on "first" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody, the State of Delaware filed a "second" form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody on February 8, 2005 which was signed by Judge John E. Babiarz and Deputy Attorney General Peter N. Letang. However, that "second" Request was not mailed to the District Attorney's Office in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania until October 26, 2005, over eight months later. See: Exhibit "B", " Second" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody, and also; See: Montgomery County District "C", Testimony of Exhibit Attorney's Office Detective George Mood at Cuyler Hearing, June 13, 2006, page 8 and 11, before the Honorable Judge William R. Carpenter, of the Court of Common pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, attached.

Approximately sixteen months after the State of Delaware filed it's "second" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody which Delaware again failed to proceed on; to commence extradition proceedings; accept temporary custody, to transport and try Appellant; Delaware presented the defective "Second" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody at the Petitioner Cuyler V. Adams Extradition Hearing on June 13, 2006 as Delaware's "Third" requisition papers, not only was the "Requisition Papers" not in the "proper Order" on their face because of their "Untimeliness" but that the Deputy Attorney General Peter N. Letang who signed the February 8, 2005 Form 5 Written Request to validate the Interstate Compact Agreement between Delaware and Pennsylvania Concerning Petitioners Extradition had resigned as a Delaware Deputy Attorney General when it was presented to Pennsylvania Court of Common pleas Cuyler V. Adams Extradition Hearing on June 13, 2006. See: Exhibit "B", "Second" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody, and also; See Exhibit "C", Transcripts of Cuyler Hearing, June 13, 2006, pages 1-11, before the Honorable Judge William R. Carpenter, of the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, attached.

The State of Delaware has unequivocally violated the Interstate Agreement on Detainers "Terms" Artical IV and V(c) where State of Delaware failed to "twice" Commence extradition proceedings and failed twice to accept temporary custody after filing "form V" initiating transfer...the 120 day period of Article IV is triggered...upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability See: Commonwealth V. Davis 567 Pa. 135 138-39, 786 A.2d 173 175 (2001), The court concluded that "Article IV of the IAD provides the procedure by which the prosecutor in the requesting state initiates the transfer:

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prison against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V (a) hereof upon presentation of a written request of temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of state in which the prisoner is incarcerated.

Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act, Article V (c) "If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has bee lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof the appropriate court of Jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be any force or effect.

In Commonwealth v. Mayle, 788 A.2d 677 (Pa. Super. 2001), the court cited the following language from Commonwealth v. Thornhill 441 Pa. Super 382, 601 A.2d 842, 846 (Pa. Super. 1992) to set forth the polices under the act:

"The policies of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers is to encourage the expeditious orderly disposition of charges is to promote and purpose prisoner treatment and rehabilitation programs by eliminating uncertainties which accompany the filing of detainer. Commonwealth v. Fisher, 451 Pa. 102 106 (1973)....because A.2d 605 607 legislation is remedial in character, it is to be liberally construed in favor of the prisoner so as to effectuate its purpose. Commonwealth v. Merlo supra at 522 364 A.d at 394."

Mayle, 780 A.2d at 682.

The state of Delaware waited over six years after filing their "first" request to have Appellant extradited on June 2, 2000 before unlawfully transporting Appellant to Delaware on August 15, 2006, among numerous other violations of the terms under the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act. Delaware violated the remedial purpose under the Act.

THE DELAWARE STATE OFFICIALS THIRD REQUISITION PAPERS WAS NOT IN THE PROPER ORDER TO ALLOW APPELLANTS TRANSFER TO THE STATE OF DELAWARE BY PENNSYLVANIA AUTHORITIES

Pursuant to Cuyler v. Adams 101 S.Ct 703, 709 at F.N. 11 (1981), citing Michigan v. Doran, supra, at 289 99 S.ct., at 535:

"The person being extradited has no right to challenge the facts surrounding the underlying crime or the lodging of the custody request at the first hearing. Even at the later habeas corpus hearing, if any, he is permitted to question only:

(a) Whether the extradition documents on their face are in order; (b) whether he has been charged with a crime named in the request for extradition; and (d) whether he is a fugitive."

Testimony before the Honorable William E. Carpenter at the Cuyler Hearing on June 13, 2006 reflected that the State of Delaware did not proceed on its "first" and "second" Form 5 Written Request for Temporary Custody and its "Third" requisition was untimely and defective.

The State of Delaware relinquish jurisdiction and right to extradite and prosecute under the Interstate Agreement on Detainer Act, Article IV and V.

It was an "Abuse of Discretion" for the Honorable Judge William E. Carpenter to order the Petitioner's transfer to the State of Delaware on June 15, 2006, and also it was unlawful for the State of Delaware to order and remove Petitioner from the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections on August 15, 2006, while Petitioner's appeal of the Lower Courts Order was pending before and under the jurisdiction of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania for adjudication, and also; in violation of the "terms" of the Interstate agreement on Detainers Acts See: Exhibit "D", Transfer Order of the Honorable Judge William E. Carpenter, of the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania; See: Exhibit A, Delaware Superior Court Criminal Docket Sheet, Docket Entry #26, dated August 2, 2006 page 3, State's Letter Filed to Criminal Office Judge Requesting the Court's Certification of a request to Transfer Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainer (IAD). Copy of Form VII attached -signed Judge Ableman, and also; See Exhibit "E", Superior Court of Pennsylvania Docket Sheet, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Ex Rel. Blane Neely v. David Diguglielmo, et al., No. 1975 EDA 2006.

WHEREFORE, the above-said reasons the Petitioner respectfully request that the Honorable Court grant a Change of Venue to entertain the instant matter and in the interest of Due Process and Equal Protection of the Law guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, mandate that the State of Delaware for violating the "Terms" of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act, dismiss all charges and relinquish all jurisdiction over this matter.

AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS - FORM V Request for Temporary Custody

TO: Records Specialist State Correctional Institution – Graterford P.O. Box 246, Rt. 29, Graterford, PA 19426

Please be advised that James Jones a.k.a. Brian Neeley/Blane Neeley; DOB 2/2/1958 & 2/2/1952, who is presently an inmate of your institution, is under (indictment, information, or complaint) in the State of Delaware of which I am the Deputy Attorney General.

Said inmate is therein charged with the offense(s) enumerated below:

I.D. No. 9908003361 - Kidnapping Second Degree; 2 counts of Possession of a Deadly Weapon by a Person Prohibited; 4 counts of Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Felony; Robbery First Degree; Conspiracy Second Degree; Possession of a Weapon with a Removed, Obliterated, or Altered Serial Number; and Resisting Arrest.

I propose to bring this individual to trial on this (indictment, information or complaint) within the time specified in Article IV(c) of the Agreement.

In order that proceedings in this matter may be properly had, I hereby request temporary custody of such individual pursuant to Article IV(a) of the Agreement on Detainers.

I hereby agree that immediately after trial is completed in this jurisdiction, I will return the inmate directly to you or allow any jurisdiction you have designated to take temporary custody. I also agree to complete the Form IX, the Motic of Disposition of a Detainer, immediately after trial.

Signed:

Title: Chief Prosecutor

I hereby certify that the person whose signature appears above is an appropriate officer within the meaning of Article IV(a), the facts recited in this request for temporary custody are correct, and that having duly recorded said request I hereby transmit it for action in accordance with its terms and the provisions of the Agreement on Detainers.

Signed: John & Boliacy

1	Commonwealth v. Blane Neely
2	(Proceedings were commenced with
3	the Court; Karen Ricca, Esquire; Jerome Brown,
4	Esquire; and the Defendant(s) being present.)
6	MS. RICCA: Good morning, Your
7	Honor. This is the case of Commonwealth versus Blane
8	Neely, also known as James Jones, docket number
9	MD-575-06.
10	This is a hearing under Cuyler
11	versus Adams regarding the Interstate Agreement on
12	Detainers. The defendant is currently a prisoner at
13	our State Correctional Institute at Graterford. He is
14	represented by Mr. Jerome Brown of Philadelphia. He
15	has filed certain motions, Your Honor, contesting the
16	transfer, which is the reason for this hearing.
17	The last time we were in court
18	Mr. Brown did stipulate to the fingerprint report that
19	I had from Detective Bruce Saville.
20	MR. BROWN: That is correct,
21	Your Honor.
22	THE COURT: So identity isn't
23	the issue, right?
24	MR. BROWN: Identity is not the
25	issue in this case.

1.	Commonwealth v. Blane Neely
2	THE COURT: What is the issue?
3	MR. BROWN: The issue in this
4	case is a couple-fold. Has the Court had an
5	opportunity to read the Motion for Habeas Corpus?
6	THE COURT: It's before me right
7	now.
8.	MR. BROWN: Your Honor, number
9	one, the State of Delaware lodged a detainer against
10	Mr. Neely probably about six years ago when he was
11	housed at SCI Graterford. Thereafter, the State of
12	Delaware has taken no action in this case.
13	I guess our attack is a
14	couple-fold. Number one, the fact that remedial
15	purposes of the Act are that individuals are to be
16	taken, under the Act, quickly, because of the fact
17	that they have certain rehabilitative efforts ongoing
18	which Mr. Neely has done. He has actually served one
19	sentence
20	THE COURT: Let me stop you for
21	a minute. You are really saying it's not a timely
22	request from Delaware any longer.
23	MR. BROWN: That's number one.
24	THE COURT: All right. Well
25	what's number two?

EXHIBIT"C"

1 Det. George Mood - Direct 2 MR. BROWN: Number two is, 3 whatever requisition papers that there were that existed six years ago are no longer valid. 5 THE COURT: And is there a 6 number three? 7 MR. BROWN: I think that would probably -- and essentially, because of the 9 timeliness, they violated the remedial purposes of the 10 Act. 11 THE COURT: Very well. 12 Is the Commonwealth ready to 13 respond with testimony or other evidence? 14 MS. RICCA: Yes, Your Honor. Wе 15 have one witness, Your Honor. 16 Commonwealth would call 17 Detective George Mood to the stand, please. 18 19 DETECTIVE GEORGE MOOD, having 20 been duly sworn, was examined and testified as 21 follows: 22 DIRECT-EXAMINATION 23 24 BY MS. RICCA: 25 Detective Mood, by whom are you employed?

FXHIBIT"C"

Det. George Mood - Direct 1 2 A. By the Montgomery County District Attorney. I am 3 assigned to the Detective Bureau as a Fugitive Unit investigator, have been so employed since September of 5 2002. Do your duties include handling documents regarding the Interstate Agreement on Detainers? Yes, involving that, and also under Uniform 8 9 Criminal Extradition Act. 10 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, may we 11 have one moment to look at these. 12 THE COURT: All right, we'll 13 take a brief recess. Let me know when you're ready. 14 (A recess is taken.) 15 16 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, if I . 17 might, I would like to add one other ground after 18 speaking with Mr. Neely. It is his position that the 19 Commonwealth -- not the Commonwealth, but the State of 20 Delaware must also, under Cuyler versus Sullivan --21 excuse me -- Cuyler versus Adams, grant all of the 22 protections under the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act also, and they have not done that, in particular 23 24 filing a governor's warrant here. That is the additional ground he has asked me to raise.

7 1 Det. George Mood - Direct 2 THE COURT: All right. Proceed. 3 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, we have 4 already seen the exhibit that the Commonwealth is 5 showing. 6 THE COURT: Thank you. 7 MS. RICCA: Your Honor, there is a copy on the bench, if you care to follow along. BY MS. RICCA: 10 Detective, I am showing you a document that is 11 paper clipped and has a "1" in the upper corner. 12 Could you please identify that for the record. 13 ~ A. Yes. Your Honor, this is a Form V under the 14 Agreement on Detainers Act, Request for Temporary 15 Custody, filed by the State of Delaware to the 16 attention of the State Correctional Institution at 17 Graterford. 18 It says "James Jones, a/k/a 19 Brian Neely/Blane Neely," and dates of birth are 20 listed, in which the State of Delaware requests 21 temporary custody for disposition of open, untried 22 charges. That's on the first page. 23 The second page is a capias from the State of Delaware, and that is a certified copy. 24 25

The following pages are bills of

- 3 are all certified copies.

- 4 The last page is a certified

- 6 submitted along with that.
- 7 These documents were received by
- 8 me on October 5, 2006. I time-stamped the envelope in
- 9 which I received these documents.
- 10 Q. Detective, are these documents in the same
- 11 condition as when you received them on the date that
- 12 you opened that envelope and time-stamped it?
- 13 A. Yes, they are.
- 14 THE COURT: What date did you
- 15 receive the documents?
- THE WITNESS: October 26, 2005.
- 17 BY MS. RICCA:
- 18 Q. Now, detective, after finding out that the
- 19 defendant wished a contested hearing, what did you do
- 20 with the last page attached to those certified
- 21 documents?
- 22 A. I submitted that certified copy of a ten-print
- 23 card to Detective Lieutenant Bruce Saville of the
- 24 Montgomery County Detective Bureau, along with a known
- 25 copy of a ten-print card for Blane Neely, who was

All 8 right? 9 MR. BROWN: Yes, Your Honor, I 10 understand. 11 THE COURT: Continue. 12 BY MS. RICCA: 13 Q. Did you receive a report back from the Detective 14 Bureau? 15 A. Yes, I did. 16 MS. RICCA: Your Honor, I 17 believe that is the basis for the identification 18 stipulation. There is a document purported to be an 19 expert report --20 THE COURT: He has stipulated 21 that identification is not the issue. 22 MS. RICCA: Yes, Your Honor.

10 1 Det. RICCA: Now, detective, as you look through those 8 documents, they bear certain seals; is that correct? 10 Yes, they do, except for page one, which is what 11 I was told is the original copy of the Form V, which I 12 received from the State of Delaware. The Capias, the 13 Bills of Information or bills of indictment, which are 14 stapled together and stapled to the fingerprint card. 15 And they are certified; is that correct? 16 Yes, they are. Α. 17 MS. RICCA: Your Honor, I have 18 no further questions for him and I would move 19 Commonwealth Exhibit 1 into evidence. 20 MR. BROWN: No objection, Your 21 Honor. 22 THE COURT: You may 23 cross-examine. 24 CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 1. Det. George Mood - Cross 2 BY MR. BROWN: 3 Sir, have you had any contact with the State of Delaware regarding these documents, other than 5 receiving them in the mail? 6 Yes, I did. Α. Are you aware that they filed a Form V request in 7 their court back on June 2, 2000? 9 I'm aware that a Form V was filed with the 10 Pennsylvania Department of Corrections, and the 11 original document was not in the Delaware file; 12 therefore, a new original Form V was issued and signed 13 by the judge in New Castle County, New York, a John 14 E. --15 THE COURT: Not New York, sir. 16 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, New 17 Castle County, Delaware, and that was dated 2/8/05. 18 BY MR. BROWN: 19 But as far as you know there was a document that 20 was filed in that court. Would you have any reason to 21 disagree with the assertion that it was filed back in 22 2000? ORDER

AND NOW, this ______ day of June, 2006, the Court finds that the State of Delawares has fulfilled the requirements of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (IADA), as codified by both Pennsylvania at PA.C.S. §9101 et seq., and the State of Delaware at 11 Del. C., Chap. 25, §2540 et seq. The Court is satisfied that the accused named in the Request for Temporary Custody, Form 5, is the defendant/prisoner being held at the State Correctional Institution, Graterford.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DIRECTED that, pursuant to the provision of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act, the State of Delaware be given temporary custody of Blane Neeley a/k/a James Jones, to answer the criminal charges in that Jurisdiction.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution, Graterford shall proceed with arrangements for the transfer and temporary custody of the defendant to the demanding State of Delaware, County of New Castle, pursuant to the provisions of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act.
